

DCNR NextGen Council applications due this Sunday, January 16th

DCNR NextGen Council Announcement

The PA Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR) is excited to launch a new opportunity - the NextGen Council. The Council will help inform the agency's work, advance Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI), and create lasting change and necessary conditions to ensure all Pennsylvanians can connect to public lands, natural resources, and engage in recreation and conservation.

Benefits to Participants

- Learn about careers in conservation: science, environment, nature
- Tap into opportunities for outdoor activities and sports in parks, forests, and trails
- Meeting and working with DCNR staff and leaders
- Leadership opportunity- writing and presenting, learning about policy
- Help your community by working with DCNR to serve all people better
- Meet new friends

You do not need any experience in conservation or government to apply- rather, a willingness to share your ideas and work together to support conservation and recreation for all- including future generations. There will be virtual meetings four times a year which will include educational presentations by DCNR and discussions of topics presented by DCNR or the NextGen Council

I

If you want to learn more or have questions, please reach out to Emily Hendrickson at RA-NRDCNREQUITY@pa.gov

To apply, follow this link: <https://forms.office.com/g/XWmFhuXHJc>.

Applications are open through January 16!

The first meeting will be in late winter or early spring 2022.